The best assortment of bibles and prayer books in the city at King & Skelly's bookstore.

Col. Barr Nobbiss authorizes me to offer for sale his farm of 130 acres, bordering on Rock river, in the third ward of this city. Its fertility is unequalled, and results from the large stock annually wintered upon it. It is but one mile from the city postoffice, and is very attractive as a home. The buildings are two dwellings, three barns, (one barn cost more than $2,000), and accommodations 65 horses, and ample wagon houses. Also, abundance of good water. As a dairy or stock-breeding farm, it is unsurpassed. Price $11,000, with liberal terms of payment. O. E. BOWEN.

Special lot of China decorated saucers, five cent each, at Wheelock's, while they last.

Gonville School House 30 and 90 cents, at Minor's.

Advice to Mothers.
Miss Wrenshaw's soothing Sympliceal Lotion is used for children in all cases of teething, colic, and all other ailments of the young. It is the best remedy for all these. 25c a bottle.

THE FAIR DRAWS NIGH.
Politics, Barbecues and Baby Shows Will Occupy a Leading Place.
One Week from Next Tuesday (The Fair Begins—Prominent Visitors Expected.)
There will be no wedding at the fair this year. None will be so thought. The time will be taken up by no other than the only chance for a matrimonial outbreak would be between the hosts of some race.
There will be plenty of novel features to take the place of the wedding. For instance, President R. T. Fember is to kiss the winner in the baby-show. And then the baby show will be no small feature by itself. It will be held on Wednesday and Wednesday being republican day the youngsters will be started in life under good auspices.
Wednesday will be a notable day in many respects. Hazen Brothers Trippers Band, organized in 1840, will lead a grand procession of Harrison veterans. The next governor of Wisconsin, Hon. W. D. Hoard, will be present, escorted by the Fort Atkinson Republican club. Bro. H. and Albany Republicans club, accompanied by the Bro. H. and Albany Republican club will turn out 100 strong, accompanied by the Evansville Cornet band. Speakers of national and state reputation will be present and address the gathering during the day.
The grand children's parade will occur at 9:30 on Wednesday and the barbecue at one o'clock in the afternoon.
Thursday, prominent speakers will address the people from the democratic standpoint. Many democratic clubs will be present. Hon. Frank Hurd, of Ohio, is among those who will address the people.
On prohibition day—Friday—prohibitionists are expected from all over southern Wisconsin. The speakers will be: John M. Otis, Esq., of Madison, prohibition candidate for governor in 1880; and Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop, of Madison, president of the Michigan W. O. C. T. U.
The following clubs have given notice that they will be in attendance: Evansville Prohibition club, 150 strong with band; Oostville Prohibition club, 100 strong; Clinton Prohibition club; Milton Prohibition club; Beloit Prohibition club, and clubs from Shopshire, Atton, La Prairie, Lima, Emerald Grove, Albany, Brodhead, Whitewater, Colburn, Albion, Edgerton and Madison with band.
All delegates and clubs will meet at the head of West Milwaukee street at the Grand Hotel, and procession will start promptly at 9:30 for the grounds.
Special rates have been arranged on both the Northwestern and the Milwaukee & St. Paul road, by which round trip tickets from any station in the state will be sold at one and one-third rates.
BRIEFLY.
—Oysters are ripe.
—Haverty's parade drew well.
—Haverty's Bluetails will play to a full house.
—Janesville's show patronage is increasing rapidly.
—The Rev. Dr. Dodge will conduct the last of the union services to-morrow.
—Union temperance meeting will be held at Cannon's hall to-morrow afternoon.
—La Crosse is considering a proposition to introduce the Gamewell fire alarm system.
—Miss Fanny Lyckman has gone to Sheboygan, where she is engaged in teaching school.
—The Myers House passenger elevator was started this afternoon, but only for the use of the work.
—Janesville stores carry a better and larger line of goods than Rockford stores ever think of doing; say a Rockford business man this morning.
—There will be no services at the Presbyterian church to-morrow, on account of repairs that are being made on the church building.
—Haverty is said to have the newest and freshest novelties in the market this year that he has ever carried. It has become an accepted fact, however, that there has never been a bad performance under his name.
—Three shipments of Clydesdale and Norman horses went out of Janesville last evening to compete in the show ring at the Iowa state fair. Janesville's horse importers are giving the town a name throughout the northwest.
—The opera house curtain will rise this evening at 8:30. This is for the convenience of patrons who are kept in the stores by the Saturday night trade. On other nights of the week the curtain will rise at the usual time.
—The Albany and Monroe base ball team took a turn at the bat in a spirited game played at Albany yesterday. The score stood 7 to 30 in favor of the Albany's. A fast race came off at the close of the game, both of Monroe winning very easily over Stevenson of Albany.
—Gospel temperance meeting at Cannon's hall Sunday afternoon at four o'clock will be conducted by the T. Walker. Rev. W. H. Clark, district lecturer of the I. O. G. T., and others, will address the meeting. All are invited.
—The third annual ball of the Order of Railway Drakemen will be given at the Armory on Thursday evening, September 13th. Smith's orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music, and the party is so assured success. Tickets only one dollar.
—We presume there are a great many people in the city that have lots of old books that are of little or no value to them as they are; whereby sending them to the Gazette Bindery they could be made into nice books with our new double cloth joint at a small cost. Send them in and see how well we will do them.
—It was a saddened group that listened to Dean McGinnis's words of consolation in St. Patrick's church this morning. Before them lay all that was mortal of little Henry Birmingham, whose life went out in the waters of Rock river Thursday. The funeral service, which was held at nine o'clock, was very impressive. Attire close the remains were taken to St. Patrick's cemetery for interment.

—The dancing party given last night by Mr. John W. Richardson at the Riverside rink, was well attended, and it was a gathering of much social amusement. Smith's superb orchestra furnished music for the dancing and the party continued until a late hour in the night, and when John Smith called "all promenade" the last time, the Riverside Social Club was closed as a place of social amusement and in the course of a few days will be re-opened as one of Janesville's busy manufacturing places.
—Yesterday afternoon a couple of young men driving from Beloit, came near being killed in the fourth ward. They were making a right turn, reaching the Monterey dam at about three o'clock in the afternoon, they attempted to pass around the "bull-head." Their boat was capsized, and one of the young men became entangled in the ropes, etc., from the boat, and had a very narrow escape with his life. They were both rescued and their boat righted up, and they continued their down-river trip.
AN INTERESTING FUNERAL.
The Democratic Headquarters in Janesville abandoned.
The Janesville democrats fail to congregate to any alarming extent this season. They opened the campaign with great bluster—routed the large double store in the Myers house block and threw open the doors in great style. They went so far as to partly decorate the walls with caricatures representing Blaine's coaching tour through England. It was of no avail. They tried several schemes to attract attention to their headquarters. First they procured fine photographs of Cleveland and wife, and hung the pictures in the front windows.
They did not draw.
Tourman's photograph was added, yet the crowd did not materialize. Governor Seymour's picture was added to the gallery of portraits, and yet passers by were not induced to enter. Finally a fine picture of Stephen A. Douglas was displayed by many admirers of that old hero statesman desired the picture in bad company and failed to be attracted to the show.
The day has finally arrived.
To-day the rooms were closed and the democratic efforts are being removed. Some are endeavoring to attribute the closing of the rooms to lack of funds to pay the rent, while others repeat a rumor that the store is to be occupied by a new clothing firm. Mr. M. J. Sullivan, the gentlemanly manager of the democratic museum, who always has a pleasant smile to greet both democrats and republicans, was seen by a Gazette reporter this morning; but he was too busy packing up the effects of the museum to impart information, and seeing that he was much downcast concerning the misfortune of his party, the reporter wisely concluded to retire, but not without having extended Mr. Sullivan a pressing invitation to jump on board the republican wagon as the procession marched by.
JANESVILLE TRADE GROWING.
How the Season's Activity Has Affected the Trade.
"Do you know that the number of transient stopping in Janesville this year is nearly double what it was at this time last year?" asked a hotel clerk this morning.
The reporter didn't, and asked for more light.
"Well," continued the clerk, "there has been such an increase, and it speaks well for the business of the town. Don't you know that you can tell a good deal about how things are going by watching a hotel register? The amount of transient trade is a good indication of the amount of trade in general. Drummers make up a large part of the trade, and they don't come unless somebody wants them. When the drummers are happy the chances are that business in town either is good or soon will be. And just now drummers are happy. They say they can't get goods enough to fill orders. Are we happy too? Why, of course, Janesville is getting to be a good deal of a traveling center and the hotels profit accordingly."

STILL TERRY COME.
The democratic mayor of Ishpeming, Michigan, T. F. Donohue, with his brother, Pat Donohue, are working zealously for the national republican ticket.
Nick Laughlin, of Neenah, a life-long democrat and one of the most influential men on the peninsula, will vote for Harrison and Morton.
D. McDonald, also of Neenah, another old time democrat, will cast his vote and use his influence for protection.
G. Hagie, manager of the Pennsylvania Mining Co., of Valon, Mich., employing from seven hundred to one thousand men, is working hard for the republican ticket. Mr. Hagie says that ninety-eight per cent of his workmen will go with him.
This makes a list of five prominent Irish American democrats in Michigan who will cast their first republican vote. Mr. T. J. Saleman (furnishes the encouraging news.
A FORTUNATE FIRE.
"I understand that Col. Blair is very wealthy."
"Well, he's worth about $100,000."
"How did he make it?"
"He made it out of coat oil."
"Indeed?"
"Yes, his wife lit the fire with kerosene, and he got all her money."—Lincoln Journal.

THE WEATHER.
At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 47 degrees above zero. Clear with a north wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 71 degrees above zero. Clear with west wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 68 and 93 degrees above zero.
A BARGAIN.
A good chance to buy a home cheap. We have for sale on easy terms, two houses and lots on Ravine street, first ward; for further particulars enquire at Kimball Hardware Co.
House and two lots on South Main street, residence of the late S. Heimstreck, must be sold before October 1st. Terms easy. Enquire at Heimstreck's drug store.

A BUNDLE OF LOCAL YARNS.
Good Stories That Have Sprung Up in Spite of the Summer's Heat.
His Fond Hopes Crashed—Those Wicked English Sparrows.
"What makes you look so faint this morning, Charlie?" asked one seven-year-old Janesville youth of another this morning.
"Oh, Willie! I had such a shock. I'd been trying for the last two weeks to scrape an acquaintance with a glorious creature down in the fourth ward. Every time I saw her I'd bow. Respond? No! I can't say that she did; but I flattered myself that she was a good deal impressed just the same. Last night I heard that her first name was Clara, and I thought I would take a step further, from the boat, and had a very narrow escape with his life. They were both rescued and their boat righted up, and they continued their down-river trip.

Thursday, prominent speakers will address the people from the democratic standpoint. Many democratic clubs will be present. Hon. Frank Hurd, of Ohio, is among those who will address the people.
On prohibition day—Friday—prohibitionists are expected from all over southern Wisconsin. The speakers will be: John M. Otis, Esq., of Madison, prohibition candidate for governor in 1880; and Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop, of Madison, president of the Michigan W. O. C. T. U.
The following clubs have given notice that they will be in attendance: Evansville Prohibition club, 150 strong with band; Oostville Prohibition club, 100 strong; Clinton Prohibition club; Milton Prohibition club; Beloit Prohibition club, and clubs from Shopshire, Atton, La Prairie, Lima, Emerald Grove, Albany, Brodhead, Whitewater, Colburn, Albion, Edgerton and Madison with band.
All delegates and clubs will meet at the head of West Milwaukee street at the Grand Hotel, and procession will start promptly at 9:30 for the grounds.
Special rates have been arranged on both the Northwestern and the Milwaukee & St. Paul road, by which round trip tickets from any station in the state will be sold at one and one-third rates.
BRIEFLY.
—Oysters are ripe.
—Haverty's parade drew well.
—Haverty's Bluetails will play to a full house.
—Janesville's show patronage is increasing rapidly.
—The Rev. Dr. Dodge will conduct the last of the union services to-morrow.
—Union temperance meeting will be held at Cannon's hall to-morrow afternoon.
—La Crosse is considering a proposition to introduce the Gamewell fire alarm system.
—Miss Fanny Lyckman has gone to Sheboygan, where she is engaged in teaching school.
—The Myers House passenger elevator was started this afternoon, but only for the use of the work.
—Janesville stores carry a better and larger line of goods than Rockford stores ever think of doing; say a Rockford business man this morning.
—There will be no services at the Presbyterian church to-morrow, on account of repairs that are being made on the church building.
—Haverty is said to have the newest and freshest novelties in the market this year that he has ever carried. It has become an accepted fact, however, that there has never been a bad performance under his name.
—Three shipments of Clydesdale and Norman horses went out of Janesville last evening to compete in the show ring at the Iowa state fair. Janesville's horse importers are giving the town a name throughout the northwest.
—The opera house curtain will rise this evening at 8:30. This is for the convenience of patrons who are kept in the stores by the Saturday night trade. On other nights of the week the curtain will rise at the usual time.
—The Albany and Monroe base ball team took a turn at the bat in a spirited game played at Albany yesterday. The score stood 7 to 30 in favor of the Albany's. A fast race came off at the close of the game, both of Monroe winning very easily over Stevenson of Albany.
—Gospel temperance meeting at Cannon's hall Sunday afternoon at four o'clock will be conducted by the T. Walker. Rev. W. H. Clark, district lecturer of the I. O. G. T., and others, will address the meeting. All are invited.
—The third annual ball of the Order of Railway Drakemen will be given at the Armory on Thursday evening, September 13th. Smith's orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music, and the party is so assured success. Tickets only one dollar.
—We presume there are a great many people in the city that have lots of old books that are of little or no value to them as they are; whereby sending them to the Gazette Bindery they could be made into nice books with our new double cloth joint at a small cost. Send them in and see how well we will do them.
—It was a saddened group that listened to Dean McGinnis's words of consolation in St. Patrick's church this morning. Before them lay all that was mortal of little Henry Birmingham, whose life went out in the waters of Rock river Thursday. The funeral service, which was held at nine o'clock, was very impressive. THE FAIR DRAWS NIGH.
Politics, Barbecues and Baby Shows Will Occupy a Leading Place.
One Week from Next Tuesday (The Fair Begins—Prominent Visitors Expected.)
There will be no wedding at the fair this year. None will be so thought. The time will be taken up by no other than the only chance for a matrimonial outbreak would be between the hosts of some race.
There will be plenty of novel features to take the place of the wedding. For instance, President R. T. Fember is to kiss the winner in the baby-show. And then the baby show will be no small feature by itself. It will be held on Wednesday and Wednesday being republican day the youngsters will be started in life under good auspices.
Wednesday will be a notable day in many respects. Hazen Brothers Trippers Band, organized in 1840, will lead a grand procession of Harrison veterans. The next governor of Wisconsin, Hon. W. D. Hoard, will be present, escorted by the Fort Atkinson Republican club. Bro. H. and Albany Republicans club, accompanied by the Bro.
